

Holiday programming at Rocky Mountain National Park

The holiday season is a great time to visit Rocky Mountain National Park. In addition to beautiful scenery, wildlife viewing and a variety of winter recreational activities to do on your own, some fun activities with park rangers are offered. Rocky Mountain National Park has a calendar full of fun family activities for the holidays.

Winter Wonderland! – December 26 - January 3 at 10:30 a.m. daily.

You are invited to read with a Ranger and create your own winter art. Hear stories about the wonders of the winter season, then create something beautiful in our family art center. Meet at Fall River Visitor Center (located on Highway 34) for this 45 minute program.

Wild in Winter – December 26 - January 3 at 10:00 a.m. daily.

Meet Rocky's wildlife! Come to this 30-minute program at Beaver Meadows Visitor Center (located on Highway 36) for a hands-on experience. Discover how the park's animals handle the winter season.

Snowshoe Ecology Walks – December 26, 27, 30 and January 2 at 12:30 p.m.

Join a ranger for a beginner- level snowshoe tour exploring the natural world of a subalpine forest. Ages 8 years old and above. Participants will need to bring their own snowshoes which can be rented at local sporting goods stores. Reservations are required, and can be made beginning December 20, call (970) 586-1223.

"Spirit of the Mountains" and "Wilderness, Wildlife and Wonder" – Shown by request daily. See the stunning park film and beautiful park centennial films at Beaver Meadows Visitor Center (located on Highway 36 west of Estes Park) and the Kawuneeche Visitor Center (located on Highway 34 north of Grand Lake).
